A RICHMOND PAPER FOR RICHMOND PEOPLE

TODAY'S ODDITY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—UP—A $10 bill issued in New York in 1714, believed to have been one of the first to be circulated here, was discovered today by Ruth Gillette in an old trunk of her father's. On the bill was printed "ten dollars. 'Tis death to counterfeit."

'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

Now that the primary election is off our hands, some of our whittlers and street corner standers will have to find other things to talk about.

That is, until about November.

Then things will start "popping" again.

Almee has dropped out of the headlines for a few days, but she will probably be back in them again with something or other.

There are some people who just love the limelight.

You know the type: "I don't want to be quoted on this but if you do use my name, my first initials are E. B. and my last name is spelled J-O-N-E-S."

And if his name is used, he pretends he's very much upset about it.

And if it isn't used, he is still more so.

So what is a poor, struggling newspaperman to do?

After Monday night a lot of the boys of Richmond are going to change their ideals.

They'll want to be candidates for governor and be late to mass meetings so that they can have a motorcycle escort.

One could hear that escort a half mile away. One didn't need to see it.

One felt the gale of wind that was stirred up by the motorcycles and automobiles and that was all.

Anyway, they gave some of the spectators a thrill.

Add new simile: As hard as trying to write an impartial political story.

This alleged fight at San Francisco on Monday night has turned many against the boxing game.

Of course, every fighter stands a chance of being badly hurt or killed in a battle.

This risk is true in every game, be it baseball, tennis, golf, or football.

It is things like these that harm the boxing game, if one may call it that.

The two precincts remaining incomplete at time of going to press, is the one at the Richmond clubhouse, No. 21, and No. 34, at San Pablo avenue and McBryde.

In the county fights, from information received from outside districts, Veale is re-elected as sheriff, and Aubrey Wilson is returned to the office of coroner.

In the constables fight, Smiley ran wild and rolled up a vote that exceeded all of his opponents, thus electing him at the primary.

In the justices fight, there will be a run off at the November election, with Alstrom and Moore as the contenders.

In the up country districts, information received shows that the vote on the coroner and the sheriff is running in about the same proportion that it did in this city.

3 States Hit By Forest Fires

BRainerd, Minn., Aug. 26.—UP—Forest fires raged in three north central states today as hundreds of weary firefighters continued their attempts to check the flames. Only a heavy rain and lessening of the wind could stop the fire in the timber near Hill City and Swatara, Minn., after the flames leaped out of control last night.

Disastrous blazes were reported in the Marengo and Bad river districts of Wisconsin. New flames spurted through a timber area between Newberry and St. Ignace in Michigan.

BAER FREED ON $10,000 BAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—UP—Frankie Campbell, one of the most promising heavyweights in the far west, died here today from cerebral contusions received in his boxing bout with Max Baer Monday night.

Several hours later Baer was arrested on a charge of manslaughter, booked at central prison, and bail was set at $10,000. Ancil Hoffman, the promoter, posted the amount in cash.

Baer's consolation were the sympathetic words of Campbell's widow and his own conviction that he had just been trying to "do his best" during the fight.

Wife Sympathetic
"It's all right boy," Mrs. Campbell told Baer. "It might have been you."

"I haven't prayed for years, but I prayed all night that he would pull through," Baer responded.

Police and the state athletic commission continued independent investigations of the fight after the arrest. They planned to question all persons involved as principals, including Toby Irwin, the referee, who had been exhorting to stop the fight by a number of spectators before Campbell lost consciousness.

Baby Cries
The bout, scheduled to go 10 rounds, ended in the fifth round with Baer, 21 year old Livermore boy, being declared the winner by a knockout. Campbell, 26, of San Francisco, for several years claimant of the Pacific coast heavyweight championship, fell backward against the ropes in a corner during that frame and while he was being punched by Baer his arms dropped to his side and his legs collapsed under him.

His physicians said his injuries were caused by more than one blow.

While Campbell was being knocked out his wife was at home caring for their eight-month-old son.

Baer Arraigned
"At just the time Frank was getting hurt, the baby began to scream," she said. "I think the baby knew something was wrong."

Mrs. Campbell said that as her husband left her to go to recreation park for the bout he told her he had never felt better.

"He kissed me and the baby and told us he would bring home the bacon," she said.

Baer was arraigned before Police Judge George H. Cabanis.

Judge Severe
"I am reluctant to act in this matter," the judge remarked, "but it is my duty as a magistrate, since all other judges are not available. I think it was a brutal affair."

Campbell's manager and seconds, saddened by the outcome of the fight claimed they had appealed to Irwin to stop the fight.

Tom Maloney, Campbell's chief second, said:

"If Irwin, the referee, had only disqualified Frank at the end of the second round, as I begged him to do, Campbell would be alive tonight. At the end of the second round Campbell turned to me and the others in that corner and said, 'I think something snapped in my head.'"

GERMAN SEA FLIERS AT N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—UP—Captain Wolfgang von Gronau and his three companions brought down their flying boat in New York harbor off the statue of Liberty today, completing a skillful but unpretentious flight across the north Atlantic from Germany.

The blunt-nosed Dornier Wal, a veteran of the air, thus became the first trans-ocean plane to land its passengers adjacent to Manhattan Island in the lanes where steamships reach journey's end from the ports of the world.

The German airmen, to whom the aerial voyage was a mere "training flight" and who set off without advance notice a week ago from the Isle of Sylt in the North Sea, raced at a 100-mile an hour clip from Halifax, N. S., in the last phase of their adventure. They left Halifax at 9:45 a. m. and sped over the 600 miles of land and coastal waters to be sighted by harbor craft at 3:30 p. m.

Capt. von Gronau estimated he and his companions had flown some 5,000 nautical miles and had been in the air about 47 hours.

Many more flights such as his would be necessary, he said, before the feasibility of a northern air route between Europe and America could be definitely determined.

"It is not customary," he said, "for planes to fly against storms, fogs and heavy rains for hours at a time over vast areas of ice and sea."

Five Buildings Razed In Blaze

MARCOLA, Ore., Aug. 26.—UP—Fire, which for a time threatened this little lumber mill town of about 1000 population, broke out in one of the houses and spread rapidly to surrounding buildings before it was brought under control late today. Five buildings were destroyed.

A fire truck was sent to the scene of the conflagration from Eugene, Ore., 20 miles distant but due to the start the fire had and the brisk wind fanning the flames, it was some time before it was finally controlled.

The lumber mill here closed down and employees formed a bucket brigade to fight the blaze.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27. (Tuesday) UP—James Rolph Jr., for 18 years mayor of San Francisco and known throughout the west as "Sunny Jim" may realize his ambition to be governor of California.

Returns early today from the state primary election gave Rolph a lead in the Republican gubernatorial nomination race over two principal opponents, Buron Fitts, youthful district attorney, of Los Angeles, and Gov. C. C. Young.

Returns from 4454 of the 10,353 precincts in California's 58 counties gave the following results:

Rolph 144,076
Fitts 116,674
Young 99,912

It was a surprising election in many ways—one filled with confusing issues.

The cry of "sectionalism" was brought forward many times in pre-election days it being contended by many Fitts supporters that southern California was entitled to a governor. Fitts was the only southern Californian of the three.

In the face of this "sectionalism" attention, Governor Young insisted that he had been and would be a governor for all of California, while Rolph remained silent.

Yet Rolph ran second to Fitts in Los Angeles county.

In the lieutenant governor's race, Frank P. Merriam maintained a safe lead over his nearest opponent.

Returns from 4323 precincts gave the following results:

Merriam 57,270
Tubbs 41,518
Carnahan 31,153
Kinsley 4,462

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—UP—James Rolph Jr., mayor of San Francisco, went into the lead at a late hour tonight in the contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

A large block of votes from Los Angeles, his home county gave Buron Fitts, Los Angeles district attorney, an early lead, but a heavy vote for Rolph in San Francisco and the northern counties overcame this.

Governor C. C. Young, seeking the nomination in the hope of re-election was running third.

Returns from 3531 of the state's 10,353 precincts gave the following total:

Rolph 108,146
Fitts 104,127
Young 72,047

HIGH AWAITS TECH GRID GAME

Resolved to decide the annual battle with Oakland Technical high school in their own favor, the Richmond Union high school grid-dens are prepared for their first clash of the year—Friday's scrimmage with "Tech."

Last year the local varsity played to a 6 to 6 tie with their Oakland rivals. This year another tough battle awaits the local warriors, but they are fairly confident that they will meet the visitors on more than even terms.

Phil Hempler and Frank Ribel, Richmond Union high school football coaches, possess one of the heaviest squads ever boasted by the local high school. The local platoon aggregation is a fairly even mixture of veteran and green material. Hempler reports that excellent progress has been shown by the youngsters from the junior high schools, while the veterans are showing their usual fine crushing tactics.

The Richmond team will have to be at the peak of its skill Friday afternoon if it expects to conquer the Tech squad, which is reputed to be probably the strongest eleven in Oakland. It is being coached this season by Roy Sharp, former University of California varsity athlete, and former coach at Fremont high school.

The tentative starting lineup for the Red and Blue eleven as announced yesterday is as follows: Hall, center; Baxter and Hoefler, guards; Lilly and Ball, tackles; Geriotti and Jullerat, ends; Scarsella and Masek, halfbacks; Brech, fullback, and Stoddard, quarterback.

However, Coach Hempler stated that almost the entire team will get a chance to see action Friday, as he is attempting to ascertain the true worth of his protégés under fire.

The game will be refereed by George Miner of Richmond and Bart Macomber of San Francisco. The contest will start on the local high school field on Friday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

BRIAND PLAN DEFEAT IS SEEN

(By J. W. T. MASON)
(Written for the United Press)
NEW YORK.—The Briand proposal for the formation of a United States of Europe is meeting with so many obstacles that its early removal from practical international politics is probable. No substantial basis exists for any kind of union among the European nations, nor is there any prospect of rivalry declining among them in the future.

The basic idea behind the Briand scheme was to form an economic bloc for tariff reprisals aimed at the United States. Unquestionably every trans-Atlantic country would like to devise a weapon to aim at Uncle Sam and compel him to keep his front door open so that the American markets would be free to Europe. But at the same time the Europeans want to keep their own front doors locked against one another.

The persistent attacks against the American tariff on the part of European traders has not blinded them to the advantages they themselves reap from their own tariff walls. The only way a United States of Europe could be established would be by an agreement among France, Germany, Italy and the other nations of continental Europe to establish free trade among themselves and raise a tariff barrier against America until America reduced her own tariff rates.

But continental free trade for Europe is impossible because different standards of living prevail in the different countries, and different degrees of industrial efficiency exist as well, acting as permanent barriers against an economic union. If it were possible for the European nations to grant special tariff favors to one another and combine in increasing their tariff rates against the United States alone such an effort to isolate America could be used to devise a partial economic union. But, it is against international practice to do this. The most favored nation clause in international treaties permits any nation to benefit with all others in tariff favors. Were the United States to be excepted from such favors, a tariff war would be started having serious consequences for all the nations involved.

HACK WILSON SETS NEW RECORD

By UNITED PRESS

National League: Hack Wilson established a new National league home run record Tuesday as the Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7 to 5 and extended their lead to five and one-half games. Wilson's homer, his 44th of the season, not only set a new league mark but placed the Chicago outfielder in a tie with Babe Ruth for inter-league leadership. The Cubs virtually clinched the game in the fifth inning when five runs crossed the plate on four hits, a wild pitch and a hit batsman.

In the only other National league game, the St. Louis Cardinals extended their winning streak to seven-straight by taking the first of a series from the Cincinnati Reds, 3 to 1. A double by Sparky Adams with two on and two out in the eighth scored the winning runs.

American League: A four-run rally in the eighth inning enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to down the Washington Senators 10 to 9 and extend their leadership of the American league to seven and one-half games. Washington jumped off to a big lead in their half of the first inning by driving Earnshaw from the mound and scoring five runs. The A's backed up three in their half of the inning. Philadelphia used five hurlers. Washington three. Connie Mack sent Lefty Grove to the hill in the ninth and he struck out the first two men and forced the third.

Turks Determine Ancestral Origin

CONSTANTINOPLE.—A gigantic folklore drive soon will be undertaken by the Turks to prove that they are of European and not Oriental descent. The Anatolian interior has been divided into 12 zones which are to be systematically searched for all "old" customs bearing on racial origins. In the midst of all the agitation, one Turkish woman professor has proposed that an official commission be formed at Ankara to re-write the national history accordingly with the results of the ethnological researches.

Pep Rally To Be Held By High School

The effigy of Tech will collapse in flames among boxes and barrels and straw tomorrow night when the loyal supporters of the Red and Blue shout and sing for victory in their annual grid clash with Oakland Technical high school on the morrow.

The students of Richmond Union high school will open the festivities by performing their annual serpentine up Macdonald avenue.

They will then wend their way to the high school, where they will sing the school songs, yell the school yells, listen to pep talks from school leaders and members of the gridiron squad, and "make whoopee" in general.

The giant bonfire built by the high school sophomores will then be set ablaze, and, in the shadows of the flickering flames, the students will pledge themselves to the team that they hope will bring victory to their school colors upon the following day.

Angler Sees Finny Trick

PROVO, Utah.—At least one fisherman is confident that luck in angling for the wily trout is largely dependent upon the quality of "firewater" used in the process.

Lee Kay, game warden, found a good-sized trout flopping on the bank of a stream, apparently lost from somebody's basket. A short distance further, he saw a fisherman snoring peacefully, his pole extended over the stream. Kay slipped the fish into the slumbering man's basket, then awakened him and asked to see his license.

The fisherman grumbled about his luck, saying he hadn't even had a bite.

"Why, you have a fish in your basket," returned Kay.

"Naw."

"Take a look."

Astonishment crept over the fisherman's face when he saw the trout.

"Here, have a drink, stranger. This stuff is wonderful. Makes fish jump into your basket while you sleep."

With that, he took another drink and dropped back to sleep, apparently hopeful that his basket would be full of fish when next he awakened.

Aged Recluse Leaves Estate Of $200,000

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11.—UP—Investigators who regarded the $200,000 will of an aged and parsimonious recluse as the worthless document of an erratic, were amazed today to learn that the fortune which William Snodgrass, 73, bequeathed to various Pennsylvania institutions actually was on deposit in various banks here.

Snodgrass, who had lived in a cheap hotel for nine years and who subsisted on 20-cent meals, died Friday after a brief illness. He had refused the offer of medical aid because "it would cost too much."

Preparations for a county burial were interrupted when the city administrator's office learned that the friendless, uncommunicative old man really possessed the fortune specified in his will.

One third of the $200,000 was left to the Masonic home in Elizabethtown, Pa.; one third to the Pennsylvania hospital in Philadelphia, and one third to the Presbyterian hospital in Philadelphia.

Under stipulation of the will Snodgrass will be buried in Los Angeles where his parents are interred.

Lisbon Made More Modern

LISBON.—The modernization of Lisbon, which met such opposition when the project was initiated 19 years ago that troops had to be called out to quiet the disturbances goes on apace and the city has little resemblance to its old self. At present two big boulevards are under construction; the Avenida de Almirante Reis, which begins in the Sao Domingos Square and will extend to Sacavem a distance of 17 kilometers; and the Avenida da India, which begins at the Sodre Docks and will reach Cruz-Quebrada, a total of 10 kilometers. Whether the principal boulevard of Lisbon—the Avenida da Liberdade—shall be extended through the Edward VII park is being discussed, and the opposition to the project is not as great as when first suggested.

The biggest tumult in connection with the improvement program occurred when several changes were made in the old and historic Pao de Rocio. The work finally was completed under difficult circumstances, but now that it is all over the opponents of its modernization are satisfied with the change.

'UNHOLY THREE' TO BE SHOWN AT FOX

When is a parrot not a parrot? The answer is a paraphrase of the famous Hollywood "Cockroach gag." For sometimes it may be Lon Chaney!

In "The Unholy Three" Chaney's first talking picture, which will open tomorrow at the Fox-California theater, Chaney as a ventriloquist throws his voice into parrots, making them talk, and imitating the birds perfectly. In fact, he became so proficient that he practiced recording his imitations and then recording a parrot talking back, so that he developed a replica one couldn't tell from the real thing.

During the production Chaney used to fool Jack Conway, his director, by having the "birds" call Conway names and getting by with it.

The new picture is a vivid mystery story, in which Chaney plays a ventriloquist, involved in a sinister plot with a giant and mid-set of the show. He hides from the police in the disguise of an old woman, operating a bird store imitating a woman's voice and also the voices of the parrots he sells. Lila Lee plays the heroine of the new story. Harry Earles the mid-set, Ivan Linow the giant and Elliott Nugent the juvenile male lead, John Miljan, Clarence Burton, Crawford Kent, and others in the cast.

Also on the program is a talking comedy entitled "Goodbye Legs."

DERBY FLIERS ARRIVE AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—UP—Four brilliantly painted, airplanes whirled down at the National Air races, shortly before sundown tonight, after having traversed half the nation from Los Angeles in less than ten hours each.

Wily Post, Oklahoma City, arrived first in his pure white Lockheed monoplane. He dropped down at 4:30:04 P. M. Cst., to complete the non-stop trip in nine hours, nine minutes and four seconds.

Less than one minute later Lee Shoenhair, Akron, O., skidded on to the field. Inasmuch as he had left Los Angeles several minutes before post, his time was nine hours, 39 minutes and 17 seconds. His plane was almost identical in design and colors with Post's.

Brock Third

William S. Brock, noted Detroit round-the-world flier, arrived third in a brilliant red plane and accompanied by Robert V. Brown, Cincinnati radio announcer. Their time was nine hours, 53 minutes and 57 seconds.

Capt. Roscoe Turner, of Los Angeles, the fourth flier who chose to leave today, arrived at 5:33 p. m. only 27 minutes before the deadline set by the rules committee for arrivals. Turner's time was 9 hours 58 minutes.

Turner brought his lion cub "Gilmore" with him.

Large Crowd

A large crowd of people, who had swarmed about the plane and dived the wrath of the pilot and radio announcer by endangering their lives, got something more than a thrill when the door of the ship was opened and Turner stepped out leading the lion.

Inasmuch as the race was against time and the fliers had until 6 p. m. Aug. 28 to finish, the winner could not be determined. Another contestant, Art Goebel, does not plan to take off from Los Angeles until Thursday.

For all that the cheering crowd of 40,000 persons which surged about the pulsing planes, took it for granted that Post was winner. They realized that a fight must have been between him and Shoenhair, flying as they did half way across the nation in less than a half day and speeding across the finish line within a minute of each other.

High Speed

"I traveled at a speed of more than 200 miles an hour much of the way," said Post. "I would have made much better speed than I did but one of my sym-passes, the one I was relying on the most, went bad on me."

The white ships of Post and Shoenhair streaked across the field at a speed greater than three miles a minute in as thrilling a finish as ever was witnessed in an air derby.

Hardly had they been trundled off the field when the red wings of Shoenhair's monoplane gleamed over the field in the setting sun.

Second Climax

Their arrival provided a second climax to a day already made thrilling by the finish of the women's Dixie air derby which started last week from Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Phoebe Omie, petite and trim except for a couple of grease smudges on her nose, stepped from her cabin plane, the winner over four rivals who arrives at short intervals thereafter.

Second prize in the elapsed time race, which had been routed through Virginia and Tennessee to give it a flavor of the old south, went to Mrs. Mertie Bowman, of Hempstead, L. I. She was approximately three hours behind the winner, Miss Laura Ingalls of St. Louis was third.

Andy?

NOPE, merely a long nosed monkey from Boreno, which has been added to the New York zoo.

LET US BE GAY WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

Moral: Don't pass by a caterpillar, some day it will be a beautiful butterfly!

This may be drawn from "Let Us Be Gay" Norma Shearer's new Metro-Gwynn-Mayer starring vehicle which closes tonight at the Fox-California theater.

In the picture of the Rachel Crothers stage hit, Miss Shearer opens the story by appearing as a dowdy housewife, who is careless of dress and toilette, believing in the security of the marital vows. When she discovers her husband's infidelity she undergoes a metamorphosis and emerges gloriously beautiful and of course, triumphant.

Robert Z. Leonard, who directed the star in "The Divorcee" again is responsible for the filming of her new talkie, a smart drama of ultra-sophistication that clicks from start to finish with bright dialogue and splendid plot-building situations.

Rod La Rocque is Miss Shearer's leading man in this delightful talkie scoring a sympathetic appeal in a very difficult role. Marie Dressler, as the eccentric old dowager whose intrigue almost wrecks their marital bark, dominates the center of her social whirl with much aplomb and hilarious gruffness.

Included in the supporting cast are Hedda Hopper, Raymond Hackett, Sally Eilers, Gilbert Emery and Tyrrell Davis.

Frances Marion is credited with adaptation of the stage hit.

Talking comedy, "Fifty Miles From Broadway."

MAN, FIANCEE FOUND DEAD AT BEACH

ESENADA, Lower California, Mexico, Aug. 26.—UP—One of Lower California's gayest resorts and the playground of many tourists, Esenada, tonight was confronted by the most mysterious crime in its history.

The bodies of Francis Conlon, Monrovia, Calif., and his 23-year-old fiancée, Lois Kentle, Los Angeles, were discovered on the bathing beach today. Conlon had been stabbed 11 times and Miss Kentle was dead from seven stab wounds in the body.

Esenada police were summoned and started an investigation. They later announced that a library book from Los Angeles had been found near the body of Miss Kentle and that another man evidently had been camping near the couple on the beach.

Word received from Los Angeles police revealed that the library book had been loaned to the girl by Charles A. Parker, her brother-in-law before she and Conlon set out for Esenada last Saturday.

Relatives of the girl said that she and Conlon had been engaged for some time and that they had been visiting in Esenada. Conlon was a salesman and Miss Kentle worked in the office.

Esenada police said that they were seeking the second man in the party. They also were investigating reports by Los Angeles relatives of the girl that the victims were accompanied by another couple.

Conlon and the girl drove here from California in his automobile.

Burglar Robs Abe Lyman

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—UP—Abe Lyman, noted orchestra leader, entered his theater dressing room after the performance Monday night. Al Bernfield, a friend, was with him.

"Don't move or I'll let you have it," were the words which reached their startled ears.

They found themselves facing an armed bandit, who rang down the curtain on his act by leaving with $800, half taken from Lyman and half from Bernfield.

Race Planes Up For Rent

LONDON, UP—Any Britisher who wishes to rent a really fast seaplane from the Air Ministry for the 1931 Schneider trophy race can do so—provided the seaplane is insured for $100,000.

This decision to lease the 1929 Schneider trophy racers to any approved applicant or concern for use in the 1931 races has been reached following the government's decision not to allow active officers of the Royal Air force to compete. When it is recalled that the members of the last British Schneider trophy team were in training for 11 months on slower racers before they went on to the record-breaking 1929 machines, it is believed it will be difficult to find a concern or individual ready to go to the great expense of hiring a 1929 machine for the 1931 races.

It is probable that the competing machines will be still further developments of last year's entries, the expenses of construction and operation being footed by the makers for advertising value of the prestige of retaining the trophy for Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Heat was blamed today for the decline in candy sales the last month by the Commerce department. Sales last month were announced as $16,713,227, compared with $19,415,990 for July 1929.

Battling Tom Cat Claws Son, Father

FRESNO.—A battling tomcat, of the alley variety, set upon 12-year old Teolis Harrison, clawing thru the leather of his shoe and sinking his teeth into the boy's heel.

When F. J. Harrison, father of the lad, attempted to pull the cat away, the animal turned on him, inflicting several severe bites and numerous scratches.

The feline was believed to be suffering from the heat.

Accident Caused By Stinging Bee

MODESTO.—A honey bee was wanted here today by Mrs. May Mendonca, on a lift-skip charge. Mrs. Mendonca accuses the bee of causing an automobile accident that caused severe cuts to one woman and serious damage to Mrs. Mendonca's automobile and to a power pole. The bee stung Mrs. Mendonca as she was driving, causing her to lose control of the car, which struck the pole. A passenger, Mrs. Perry, was treated at a hospital here for cuts and bruises.

OBJECTIVES OF LEGION ARE OUTLINED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Seven major objectives are included in the state-wide program for the 390 posts of the American Legion during the coming year. B. W. Gearhart of Fresno, new state commander of the Legion has announced.

The program includes rehabilitation and care of disabled veterans, community betterment, promotion of airports, increased use of the franchise, a definite boys' program, aid in disasters and a $20,000,000 farm and home loan bond issue for veterans.

Commander Gearhart elected to office at the recent Sacramento convention of the Legion is losing little time in formulating his policies for the coming year.

Every community in which there is an American Legion Post will have an airport under the plan advocated by Commander Gearhart. The Legion will co-operate with local organizations and civic bodies in the drive for increased airport facilities in this state.

A detailed program for community betterment will soon be laid before the various posts of the Legion by the new commander.

On a non-partisan basis, the Legionnaires will bend every effort to increase registration and to encourage a larger number of voters to go to the polls on election days.

Boy Scout troops will continue to be sponsored by the American Legion units in each community and a greater participation in boy activities will be urged on the part of the World War veterans.

Emergency organization will be perfected in each community where there are Legion posts for aid in disasters, such as the forest and grain fires or the St. Francis dam catastrophe.

Already Commander Gearhart has taken steps toward placing the $20,000,000 farm and home loan bond issue for the veterans before the people so that the work of assisting veterans to secure farms and homes at no cost to the state will be continued.

Continuation of the Legion's program for the rehabilitation and care of wounded, sick or disabled ex-service men and women will come under Commander Gearhart's personal direction.

Chicago Feared By Helen Kane

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Because gangland's machine guns go rat-a-tat-tat and not hop-a-doo, baby-talk Helen Kane doesn't trust Chicago.

"Even in these national hard times I have saved a bit," she laughed with round-eyed mystery. "and they're too tough here, so I bought Liberty Bonds and hid them away in a safe deposit box."

A witness at the bankruptcy hearing of a dress firm, her statement aroused the interest of attorneys enough so that she faced a barrage of questions as to the amount. She was called as a result of the discovery that the head of the firm had recently given her $50,000.

"Why yes, hoop-a-dooing, pays fairly well," she confided in whisper. "The bonds I bought amounted to $90,000."

Carrots Rushed to N. Y.

A LOAD of carrots is rushed to New York during the drought. There was a shortage of these healthful vegetables in New York, because of the dry spell that affected the gardens.

"DYING" MAN IS GETTING BETTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—UP—Steady improvement was noted tonight in the condition of Irving S. Johnson, who has been kept alive by the only artificial respirator in the west.

The respirator was being removed from his body for longer periods and physicians were optimistic that he would recover completely from infantile paralysis that has affected his diaphragm.

In order that Johnson might live physicians had to forfeit the life of Miss May McCullough, 35, who became afflicted with the same trouble after Johnson had been placed in the respirator. To have removed the recently invented machine from Johnson and have used it for Miss McCullough would have caused his death, they decided.

Drive On.

A campaign to obtain more of the respirators and prevent recurrence of such a case was being conducted among the city's wealthiest residents.

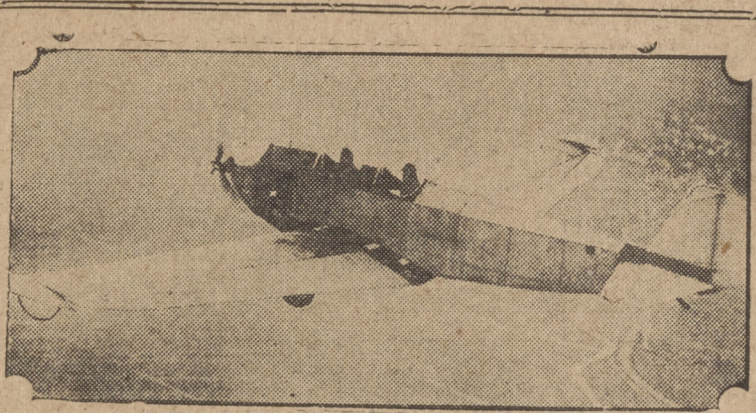

"We should have one of these machines in every hospital," the mother of Miss McCullough said. "If there had been another on the Pacific coast, my daughter would be alive today."

School Traffic Squads Aid In Protecting Tots

Thousands of selected school boys in all parts of northern and central California are being assembled as members of the school traffic squads. With the fall school terms already begun or soon to open, training of the young "soldiers of safety" to protect their smaller schoolmates from traffic dangers is actively under way in more than 50 cities and towns and the adjacent rural areas.

Under the direction of the public safety department of the California State Automobile association in co-operation with school and police authorities and the state motor vehicle department, squads of school traffic reserves are being organized and new members chosen to fill the ranks depleted each term by graduations.

In most places where the schools have opened, boys of the traffic reserves have already assumed the duty of patrolling crossings near the schools, where they may be seen before and after classes and during the noon hour escorting groups of their younger comrades safely across streets and highways.

Each of the traffic reservists is distinguished by the yellow arm band supplied by the motorists' organization. The distinction of wearing the insignia has come to be regarded as a coveted honor, as the boys are selected according to high standards of scholarship and all around efficiency.

There will be more than five thousand of these junior traffic officers on duty when all the schools are opened. Since the reserve was first formed, records of traffic injuries to children have shown a distinct decrease. The public safety department of the Automobile association has issued a general appeal to motorists to cooperate with the boys of the reserve in their work.

NEW OFFICIAL OF LEGION IN PLANS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—UP—California's new American Legion commander, B. W. Gearhart of Fresno, one of the founders of the American Legion, has already begun work upon his program of veterans' activities for the ensuing year. Commander Gearhart, chosen to head the World War veterans organization of this state at the recent Sacramento convention of the American Legion, has notified J. K. Fisk, state adjutant for the eighth consecutive time, that the program of community service and veterans' welfare will be started in the 390 posts of the Legion immediately.

Commander Gearhart is an overseas veteran and served in the Army Air Service for 18 months, eight of which were spent overseas. He served "with distinction" according to records. Gearhart is a former district attorney of Fresno county. He was one of the California delegates named by Theodore Roosevelt to meet at St. Louis in 1919 when the national American Legion organization was set up by the veterans. Gearhart returned home and organized three of the first posts in California. He was active in the organization known as the soldiers' and sailors' association and which merged as the American Legion.

Gearhart has held numerous offices in the American Legion and under former State Commander F. N. Belgrano, Jr., of San Francisco he was chairman of the state membership committee. During the past year, Gearhart served as chairman of the Americanism committee by appointment from State Commander Clarence L. Kincaid, whom the Fresno man succeeds. Under the plan in vogue in the American Legion, the state commandery is given to the north one year and to the south the next. Gearhart was unopposed for election.

CHANNEY RITES TO BE HELD THURSDAY

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 26.—UP—Lon Chaney, the man who brought the art of illusion to motion pictures, was taken by death today just as his friends and relatives began to hope he would recover from a long illness and go on to greater success in the talkies.

It was announced tonight that funeral services for the star will be held here Thursday. Burial will be made in Hollywood.

The six active pallbearers will be intimate friends of the actor. No film prominent was included in the list although many motion picture people were named honorary pallbearers. They included Louis B. Mayer, Irving Thalberg, William Haines, Tod Browning, Harry Carey, Lionel Barrymore, Ramon Navarro, Lawrence Tibbets, Cliff Edwards, Fred Niblo and Wallace Butler.

General Smedley D. Butler of the United States Marine corps, a long time friend of Chaney's was also named as an honorary bearer.

Known as the mystery man of Hollywood—a man who had scores of friends but few intimates—Chaney clung to his cloak of secrecy during the final period of his life.

He was stricken seriously several months ago, shortly after he had completed his first talking picture "The Unholy Three" and under his orders little information came from his bedside at the hospital where he died.

No Details
Sisters at St. Vincent hospital were requested by the actor to give out no details of his illness. His physician issued only brief bulletins at widely separated intervals, and members of his family came and left the hospital in silence.

Chaney was conscious until he was seized with a hemorrhage of the throat early this morning and evidently believed until the last that his strong constitution would pull him through. Studio officials explained that he did not wish to alarm his family and his many friends and admirers by calling undue attention to his condition.

Chaney's career was considered one of the most spectacular in Hollywood where unknowns have risen to wealth and prominence overnight. His rise was relatively rapid but was preceded by hard work and application of a talent cherished from his boyhood days.

Lon Chaney always liked to "fool with makeup" and to this hobby he owes his great success in the cinema.

"I just liked to putter around with the stuff," he often explained to interviewers with whom he was extremely reticent. "I soon found out I could do some rather good things with it."

Chaney experimented on himself. Even after he was making thousands of dollars weekly as a star he barred the door of his dressing room to directors and professional makeup men and worked out his own ideas. The directors of Chaney's productions frequently awaited in anticipation the star's arrival at the set. They never were sure just what he would look like.

Born In Colo.

The actor was born to deaf mute parents in Colorado Springs, Colo., April 1, 1893. The fact that he was born on "April Fools Day" gave him many a laugh as he continued to mystify the movie public with his facial guises and body deformations.

Although it was known that Chaney was seriously ill his death was unexpected. He had recently received treatment by New York specialists and was back in Hollywood to resume work when he went to the hospital.

As he was talking with his wife and Creighton Chaney, his son, the actor suffered the hemorrhage which brought death. His family called Dr. John C. Webster who pronounced Chaney past aid.

Large Salary
Chaney made huge sums in the movies but never lived the extravagant life of other Hollywood stars. He was content to remain quietly with his wife and son, passing up most of Hollywood's entertainment. His chief amusements were horse back riding, golf, swimming and prize fights. There seldom was a boxing event staged in California without Chaney at ringside and he frequently travelled East to take in some big sporting event.

In addition to his widow and son, the actor is survived by two brothers, John, who lives in Hollywood and Frank who resides in Martinez.

SIX HOUR DAY PLAN ASKED BY R. R.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 26.—UP—A six hour working day was advocated here today by A. F. Whitney, Cleveland, O., president of the International association of General Chairmen, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, as a logical solution to the unemployment situation.

Whitney, who is presiding at the second annual convention of the association told the United Press that constructive measures must be adopted by industrial organizations to relieve unemployment.

"With more than 5,000,000 persons unemployed, the situation is growing more acute daily," he said. "If America is to enjoy prosperity, the purchasing power of the average workman must be increased."

"This cannot be accomplished until there are jobs available for every man, and the Brotherhood of Trainmen is trying to do its part to bring this about."

The most plausible plan to decrease idleness, Whitney believes, is to inaugurate a six-hour working day in virtually all manufacturing plants and in many lines of business, thus affording a large number of unemployed jobs.

More than 300 delegates are attending the convention, which closes Thursday.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said:
"One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged.
But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body.
Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken.
Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

LAWYER SAYS TRUSTY NOT ESCAPE

MARTINEZ, Aug. 26.—Attorney Leo Marcollo of Richmond, has raised the contention that a trusty, who is not under official guard and who "escapes" cannot be charged with being an escaped prisoner, in the case of Eugene Martin, negro, who fled the county jail here a few weeks before his term expired. He was sentenced from Richmond for theft.

According to police, Martin, while serving as a trusty on the court house grounds, disappeared and was arrested at Pocatello, Ida. some time later.

Marcollo, who was appointed to defend the prisoner, declares that his defense would be that failure of the sheriff's office to post a guard over Martin obligated the offense brought against him.

Robins Whip Cat In Tree

AUGUSTA, Me.—The local fire department was called out to rescue a tomcat which had become embroiled in battle with a flock of robins.

Evidently the cat had climbed a tree to rob the robins' nest. When the birds resented the attack they swooped upon the feline, which retreated. Unfortunately the tomcats' retreat was not strategic. Instead of descending to the ground he climbed to the topmost branches and there became fair game for the enraged robins.

Norton H. Plummer saw his plight and called Fire Chief McCurdy, who summoned Lon Hill, another fire fighter. The three managed to rescue the dazed animal, its body covered with cuts from the robins' beaks.

Fire Threatens Movie Colony

FERNWOOD, Aug. 26.—UP—An uncontrolled forest fire defying 2000 men was burning in the Las Tamas canyon tonight and threatened to destroy Fernwood, a community of 200 homes.

The village, a picturesque suburb of Los Angeles contains many beautiful homes, including the residence of Richard Dix, film actor. The fire was burning through timberland about five miles from the shoreline of the Pacific ocean. It was estimated that the blaze had destroyed about 100 acres of woodland.

Car Population Gains On Human Total, Report

California's motor car population is growing faster than its human population in spite of the fact that this state led all other states in growth during the past decade.

While the census showed that during the past ten years California had gained sixty-four percent in population, the motor vehicle figure shows that during the past seven years a gain of one hundred percent was recorded. The state now has more than 2,000,000 motor vehicles in operation. Just prior to 1924 it was proclaimed that the 1,000,000 mark had been passed. As the census gives California a population of approximately 5,600,000, this means that there is one motor vehicle in the state for every 2.3 persons.

California was the first, years ago, to reach what was then called the saturation point—one automobile for each family. Since that time the motor vehicle population has been increased more than two times as fast as the human population.

Registrations at the end of the first half of the year 1930 show that fees were paid on 1,968,012 cars, which is an increase of approximately six percent or 108,489 over the same period a year ago. As this total does not include cars owned by public service corporations and political subdivisions on which no fees are paid, the grand total of cars actually in use in the state is over 2,000,000.

In southern California there are 1,556,202 motor vehicles, or about 60 percent of the total, and 811,750 in the northern counties. Los Angeles county holds its lead by a wide margin with more than one-third of the total registration in the state. It has more than three-quarters of a million passenger cars.

KEITH TALKS PILOT FIGHTS AT LIONS MEET WITH SNAKE IN AIR

J. D. Keith of Crockett, chairman of the educational section of the California Taxpayers' association unit in this county, was the speaker of the day at a meeting of the Richmond Lions club yesterday.

Keith declared that the present system of school boards was cumbersome and expensive, declaring that progress should be made in reducing the number of boards so that the school units of the county should be efficiently and economically managed.

"Richmond does not have the same problem," said Keith, "as some of the smaller districts because you have a school district large enough in size to provide for experienced and efficient management."

J. D. McFarland, secretary of the county unit of the association was a guest with Keith at the meeting.

H. H. Mylander, chairman of the major activity committee of the club reported at the meeting that his committee was working on a plan to obtain a municipal golf course for Richmond. The plans at present were too indefinite for a complete report, he said, but members of the committee have been investigating the various municipal golf courses in the state.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—UP—William A. Wellman, Hollywood motion picture director, and Mary E. Wellman, former Polles beauty, have ended their romance in the divorce courts.

Mrs. Wellman was given the decree by Superior Judge Carlos Hardy on her testimony that the director used "terrible language." It was so terrible she refused to say it aloud, but whispered a few "samples" to the judge.

"Too terrible," agreed Judge Hardy, "divorce granted."

Wife Stabbed By Husband

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 26.—UP—While police officers stood a few steps away, Fred G. Strauss, 23, stabbed his pretty wife, Norma, 22, in a district police station here early today.

Strauss, a dagger in his hand, was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, while his wife was removed to the Receiving Hospital for treatment of a wound in her side.

The Strauss couple, married six months, met in the station and were advised by police to settle their differences amicably. They walked into an anteroom and a few minutes later the officers heard Mrs. Strauss scream. They ran in to find her dangerously wounded.
